

CYPRUS

Population: 0.8 m.	GDP:	Purchasing power:	Latent demand: 0.092 m
Official languages:	Greek, Turkish
Terms for translators:
Range of fees:

Academic qualifications required:	None
Professional certification required:	None
Association membership required:	None

Legal/fiscal regime:	No specific recognition of translators in the taxation system, social security or national statistics.
Certification of sworn translators:	The Constitution does not recognize sworn translators. Translators certify their translations by swearing an affidavit in which they state their qualifications.
Other certification systems:	The Ministry of the Interior has a Press Information Office with a Translation Section, created in June 1990. The government will only accept translations legalised by this institution. The Press Information Office thus does translations or legalises the signature of the translator, charging 25 euros per page, of which 16 euros goes to the translator. Following complaints by the association of translators (PanUTI), it has been announced that the Translation Section will be closed, on anti-trust grounds.

Translator associations	Pan Cyprian Union of Graduate Translators and Interpreters (PanUTI) (www.pancyuti.org), with 74 members in 2011. Members require a degree in Modern Languages with Translation.
Translation company associations:	Not known.

Informant:	Anastasia Pilottou, PanUTI
------------	----------------------------